Chet and John,

This is one of the websites I was looking into for information to help our cause. One of the guys that works for Marty happens to know this Ron Lamberty who is one of the gentleman actively involved with this ethanol organization. Please see his message below.

Sherri,

I have attached some info from a gentleman named Ron Lamberty. He is very active in promoting the use of Ethanol. here is what he wrote back to me when I asked if he had any info you could use:

First of all, check out our website - www.ethanol.org (note the "org" not "com")

It has a ton of information, including studies on the impact of ethanol plants on the local economy, and some items regarding pollution from the plants (an INCREDIBLY overstated problem) that may be useful in debating the guys that oppose these plants.

I'm going to forward you an e-mail (from another address) with a couple of links to an editorial by one of the "bad left-wingers," and my response to that editorial. Ed Garvey is probably going to get involved with any Wisconsin group that wants to build an ethanol plant. He passes himself off as noble, but my guess is he still charges a fee and cashes the checks. I would be glad to come to your town and answer any questions they have, and provide any information they need, just because that's what our non-profit organization does

As a bonus, you can find photos of me on the www.ethanol.org site!

My work e-mail is rvlamberty@\(REDACTED\).org.org). I included it as a Cc. My phone number here is 605-334-(REDACTED). Feel free to hand it out as needed.
